The colored people of Winchester have organized a branch of the Latine Anti-Tuberculosis Loague, which was recently organized here to carry on the work of treating and preventing the spread of consumption, as started by the late Dr. S. P. Latane. The colored people are taking a great interest in the movement, and have subscribed generously toward the support of the district nurse, Miss Ann Carson, who is to begin her work in the near futire.

The voters of Charlestown, W. Va., which has been one of the main sources of supply for "dry" territory in Virginia for a number of years, will vote on the liquor question on May 1, and a heater campaign is now in progress. The Charlestown saloon men have been enjoying a large trade from nearby Virginia points, and the evening trains leaving that place on the Baltimore and Ohlo Railroad and the Norfolk and Western Railway are known as the "jug specials," The liquor interests are making a stiff aght to prevent a "dry" victory.
